Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was established by people with hard work, perseverance and dedication and duty to provide for their families and their fellow man; and,

Whereas, One of the basic principles of government is to protect society from those who would harm us; and,

Whereas, Dale Morck has played a vital role in safeguarding this state's citizens at the Human Services Center, South Dakota State Penitentiary and Mike Durfee State Prison; and,

Whereas, Dale is retiring after 35 years of dedicated service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Colleagues, family, and friends will gather on June 8, 2005, at Mike Durfee State Prison for an open house in honor of Dale for his commitment of service to the state of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and colleagues in offering him best wishes for a healthy, happy, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
